BRINGING CARE & COMMUNITY TOGETHER

COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES

Our Community Support Services are available to seniors aged 55+ and adults with a physical disability living in the communities of Kanata, Stittsville, Nepean and West Carleton.

Community Support Services are for individuals who need support to function independently at home, because of a disability, illness or limitation due to aging. Also known as home and community care, these services help individuals live at home and keep connected with their community. Community Support Services are based on guiding beliefs that value empowerment, equity, partnership and innovation. This is translated into meaningful, caring and personalized service, in order to enhance self-esteem and promote independence at home.

Eligibility criteria may apply. These services are provided by volunteers and paid workers who have been screened (including a police record check for the vulnerable sector). All are trained by staff at the Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre.

The WOCRC tries to accommodate all requests for service; however this depends on the availability of volunteers and paid workers.

For further information or to access these services, please call 613-591-3686 and choose option 3.

If you live outside of Kanata, Nepean or West Carleton, please use Caredove (<https://www.caredove.com/champlaincss>) to find the nearest providers of these services.

Staff will notify clients, caregivers and volunteers of the cancellation and/ or closure. Please note that fees for any services or programs cancelled at the discretion of the WOCRC will not be charged to our clients.
