

Bringing care and community together

The Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre (WOCRC) offers health and social services and programs to benefit individuals of all ages in far west Ottawa.

OUR VISION

Healthy, inclusive, vibrant and resilient communities in Western Ottawa.

OUR MISSION

The Western Ottawa Community Resource Centre promotes health, safety and wellness in our communities. We provide individuals and families with, and connect them to, community, social and health services across the region.

OUR GUIDING BELIEFS

The WOCRC's deeply held beliefs are demonstrated through our day-to-day interactions with clients, partners, volunteers, members and staff.

EMPOWERMENT

We believe that people have the right to make their own choices, and take control, individually and collectively, of their lives.

Therefore, we are committed to providing information and resources which will enable people to make informed decisions. We are dedicated to creating an environment where people participate in activities that promote social change.

EQUITY

We believe that dignity, respect and justice are rights of all people regardless of age, language, ethnicity, culture, religion, ability, gender, income, geographical location or sexual orientation.

We acknowledge that there are systemic, social and cultural barriers that prevent people from having equal access to resources and opportunities.

Therefore, we are committed to recognizing and addressing barriers such as violence, poverty, isolation, exclusion, oppression and discrimination, so as to enable people to reach their full potential.

PARTNERSHIP

We believe that by working together we can achieve more than we can on our own.

Therefore, we are committed to creating partnerships with individuals and groups that build on equality, respect, integrity, accountability and responsibility. We will engage with others in a supportive, non-judgmental environment where everyone can share knowledge, experience, strengths and skills.

INNOVATION

We believe that we will transform our vision into reality by developing innovative solutions to the complex and diverse issues facing our community.

Therefore, we are committed to creating a learning culture that is flexible, dynamic, embraces change, and encourages evolutionary thinking. We are dedicated to sharing our learning, knowledge and best practices for the benefit of the people with whom we interact.

CLIENT RIGHTS¹

At the WOCRC, we respect all our clients and take their rights very seriously. Specifically, we believe that our clients have the right to:

Be Respected:

- Be treated in a professional, courteous and dignified manner
- Be acknowledged and welcomed for your individuality, needs and preferences, including ethnic, spiritual, linguistic, familial, ability, age, socioeconomic, cultural, sexual orientation, gender expression, and gender identity factors

Be Heard:

- Participate in making empowered choices about the factors that affect your safety, health and overall wellbeing
- Provide feedback about your experience accessing our services and feel confident that any concerns you have can be addressed through our Client Complaints² policy and procedures

Be Informed:

- Receive clear information to help you make decisions in the planning and delivery of your services
- Receive information about other services at our centre and in the community

Quality of Service:

- Receive quality and confidential services in compliance with our policies and procedures and other relevant legislation
- Receive service in French if participating in a program that has been designated as bilingual (i.e., English / French)

Along with the WOCRC's Guiding Beliefs, these Client Rights are a fundamental part of our approach to serving residents of our community.

CLIENT COMPLAINTS

¹ The WOCRC recognizes that in spite of efforts to meet client needs, there may be times when clients are not satisfied with the services received. Any correspondence received in French from a client in a designated program, for the purposes of a complaint, Complaint Policy and Procedure to be followed and addressed in French. For all other undesignated programs, efforts will be made to respond accordingly.

² The full policy and procedure is available to you upon request by:

CLIENT PRIVACY

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Our Commitment

We are committed to protecting your personal information. This information is given to us in trust and will remain confidential.

1. All WOCRC staff and volunteers are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of your information.
2. When the WOCRC collects information from you, it will only be to provide you with services that you have requested. You are not required to provide any information beyond what is required to meet your needs.
3. WOCRC staff work in teams to provide you with comprehensive services. Information may be shared among those directly involved in providing you with services. We will not share information about you with others outside the Centre without your permission, except under special circumstances (see Limits of Confidentiality).
4. Your file belongs to the WOCRC. You are welcome to request access to your file. The WOCRC will be responsive to any questions or concerns that you may have regarding the protection of your privacy at the WOCRC.

Privacy and Security of Your Information

The Personal Information collected in your file belongs to you. The privacy and protection of your information is a priority. In the assessment process, we only collect the information we need in order to determine your service and support needs. The information cannot be used for any other purposes without your permission.

- Your information is kept in a secure place.
- Your information will only be viewed by authorized people who deliver your services.
- All service providers have signed contracts to keep your information confidential.
- When a person views your information, it is recorded in a log. This log is reviewed regularly to make sure there has been no unauthorized access to your information.
- Information is stored and/or disposed of according to the law.
- We will investigate any suspected breach or unauthorized access to your personal information.

Limits of Confidentiality

The WOCRC may report information to third parties without consent only if required by law. Examples include:

- If we believe that you are a danger to yourself or others;
- If we suspect that a child under the age of 16 is at risk;
- If our records are subpoenaed by the courts.

Protecting Your Privacy

The collection of personal client information is fundamental to providing quality community, health, and social services. The WOCRC has always understood the importance of confidentiality and we have taken additional steps to ensure the privacy and protection of your information. We have:

- Approved a Privacy Policy;
- Appointed Chief Privacy Officers to answer your inquiries and concerns;
- Set up safeguards for handling paper, electronic and verbal personal information.
